

EXCURSION TO AIT BEN HADDOU

DESCRIPTION:

Start from Marrakech at 8O'clock. We will enjoy spectacular views and very beautiful landscape along the drive over the high Atlas Mountains through the famous pass Tizi N'tichka 2260m. Next is old village of ait benhadou. It was one of the most important villages in the southern Morocco and a major stop for the caravans between Toumbouktou and Marrakech. In 1987, the village was classified by UNESCO as one of its heritage sites in Morocco. Nowadays, the village is a natural background used by many film producers, therefore; it is home for several movies such as Gladiator, prince of Persia and Game of thrones. Most of the inhabitants of the Ksar moved to live in the other side of the river. However, there are about ten families that are still living in their old Kasbahs. We will have an interesting guided tour of the village followed by a traditional lunch in one of the local restaurants before we head back to Marrakech on the same road.
